Man In Motorboat Warns Bathers Of Fish's Coming; Many Fail To Heed.

NEW YORK, July 12.—A monster shark whose stomach contained part of a human body was killed at Keyport, N. J., today, according to information received at the weather bureau here from the observer at Long Branch, N. J.

The waters of the Atlantic seaboard are infested with sharks. While hundreds of armed men in motor boats were patrolling the New Jersey coast today in search of the man eating monster which has now caused the death of four bathers, the British sloop, Sir George Somers arrived from Bermuda with a score of sharks the crew had caught in the gulf stream during their 12 days' voyage to this port.

The last was caught off the New Jersey coast the day before yesterday. The crew said that the big fish were numerous and hungry. They followed the ship and snatched violently at bait. Those caught were pulled in with hook and line and killed as they were hoisted aboard.

The shark killed today weighed 300 pounds and was 11 feet long. It was killed near the mouth of Matamoras Creek, N. J., and is undoubtedly the same fish which yesterday invaded the creek and killed two persons, the weather bureau's informant reported.

MATAMORAS, N. J., July 12.—Hundreds of armed men in row boats and launches were hunting today for the man eating shark which Wednesday killed a boy and a man and dangerously injured another youth in Matamoras creek and caused a reign of terror along the New Jersey coast.

It was reported this morning that another man named Baldwin was attacked and killed by a shark at Keyport, N. J., at the mouth of the creek. The body of Lester Stillwell, 12 years of age, has not been recovered and it is believed the shark devoured the lad.

Stanley Fisher, 24 years old, who was attacked by the shark when he tried to rescue the Stillwell boy, died upon reaching the shore.

Joseph Ralph Dunn, 16 years old, was in a precarious condition in a hospital today. He was taken to the hospital after being rescued from the water. He was rescued by a man named Fisher who was killed by the shark.

Summer Resorts Take Precautions. Owing to the news that has been told about the New Jersey shark, many summer resorts have taken precautions. At Keyport, N. J., the beach is guarded by a line of men. At Matamoras, N. J., the beach is guarded by a line of men.

Bathers Are Warned. The first person who saw the nine foot shark Wednesday was Capt. Thomas B. Cottrell, of Keyport, as he earlier today saw the shark. Fifty or more persons were bathing. Capt. Cottrell says, and he warned them. He said the shark was about 10 feet long and was about to attack a boy. He said the shark was about 10 feet long and was about to attack a boy.

Four persons now have been killed by a man eating shark and two maimed when the New Jersey coast during the last two days.

Hear Screams For Help. A dozen or more boys who also were bathing in the inlet harbor heard Stillwell's screams for help. Fisher, who was standing on the bank went to the rescue. He had only gone a few feet when the shark attacked him, tearing a piece out of one thigh.

In spite of his wound, Fisher caught the boy in his arms and had started for shore when the shark retrieved the attack. Buried as was Fisher, he was helpless and the shark snapped
